The New Summer Beauty

'Tis the season to be glamorous and fabulous! Here at theLounge we've done the research (it's a hard job!) and come up with the best new offerings for summer beauty.

The Waxing Kit: Muster Perfect Wax Kit

DIY home waxing experiences can be messy (sticky goo on your sofa or bathroom ceiling), painful (if the wax is too hot it can scald your skin) and ineffective (if the wax is not hot enough it just won't work). The Muster Perfect Wax Kit keeps the wax at a constant perfect temperature, the applicator makes wax application and removal easy, and the refill canisters mean the wax only ends up where you want it. Too easy. RRP $119

The fake tan: Jungle Bronzer Self Tanning Spray

Unless you want to end up looking like Bridget Bardot (who would have imagined that that would ever be a negative thing?) you'll know the importance of faking the tan. We've found a fake tan that is non-greasy, dries quickly and finishes with a natural-looking, non-streaky tan. With Jungle Bronze Self Tanning Spray you can simply spray it on, wait a few minutes, get dressed and forget about it. Oh, and it won't stain your clothes either.

The hair care: L'Oréal Professionnel Intense Repair range

Harsh sun, salt water and exposure to the elements can turn even the lushest of locks into a dry, damaged mess. That's why it is important to start using products that protect and repair your hair right from the start of summer. L'Oréal Professionnel Série Expert Intense Repair series has shampoos, conditioners and conditioning treatments that will protect and repair your hair making it soft to the touch and easier to style. RRP $17.60 - $19.75

The Everyday Makeup: Nvey Le Maquillage

If you ever thought a makeup bag minus eyeliner is a makeup bag seriously lacking, Nvey's Eye Definition series will make you think again. The Nvey compact is filled with all the hottest eye colours this summer - and with a few drops of special liquid, the eyecolours transform into linquid eyeliner!

The Glamour Makeup: Napoleon Bisou range

Just as events come in varying degrees of fabulousness, so too should makeup come in varying degrees of glamour. Finally, our most fabulous Greek God, Napoleon Perdis, has come to the rescue, with eyeshadows, lip colour and blush that can turn from glamour to drop-dead glamour in the stroke of a brush. The Bisou eyecolours come in four smouldering shades that can be worn alone, or combined for a more dramatic look, and the lip colours, stunning on their own, can be pumped up with the addition of lip gloss. RRP $59

The Body Essentials: Ms Fru Fru Body Butter and After Bath Powder

After a relaxing bath, feed your skin with the luxurious Body Butter from Bayonelle's Ms Fru Fru range for a radiantly soft look and feel. Follow with a dusting of After Bath Powder, which comes with a beautifully soft powder puff, for the ultimate in post bathing chic.
