

STAR TALK with

Alicia Molik

Tennis ace Alicia Molik isn't your typical tomboy athlete. After a hard day on the courts, the single 24-year-old loves to come home and girlie herself up. "I do enjoy being in the bathroom and putting make-up on," says Alicia, whose fave attire is a full-length summer dress with Birkenstocks. An ambassador for Garnier during the Australian Open (she won't be playing due to a viral condition), Alicia shares her beauty winners with Who.

Is being blonde hard to maintain?

No. Being active—swimming, running, being in the sun—means my hair gets quite dry, so I use a weekly hair masque to keep it moist. Whenever I'm in town I go and see Errol, my hairdresser in [Melbourne's] Elwood. It's as much about having my hair trimmed as having a bit of fun.

How do you style it when you go out?

I put a few loose curls in it. I like hairstyles that last an entire night without having to fix them up.

What sort of make-up do you like?

I like smoky grey eyes. Depending on how many sparkles are in my clothing, I don't mind using a bit of shimmer powder as well.

"My natural colour's a deep blonde," says Alicia.
